According to UNESCO, it is 'one of the most precious cultural properties of man's cultural heritage'. Petra is half-built, half-carved into the rock, and is surrounded by mountains riddled with passages and gorges. The fusion of Hellenistic architectural facades with traditional Nabataean rock-cut temples have created a unique artistic phenomenon. The monuments that fill modern visitors with awe are what remains of the ancient capital of the Nabataean empire which thrived between 400 BC and AD 106. We will take part in a sightseeing tour to gradually unfold the mysteries of the Rose Red City with its spectacular treasury, Royal Tombs, burial chambers and significant places of sacrifice. According to ancient tradition, this is the mountain from which Moses had seen the Promised Land before he died.
